SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #3, 15 - 21 January 1958

1. Significant Items:

Nothing to report.

2. Other Activities:

A. Intelligence Orientation

1. Intelligence Orientation #17 concluded on 17 January. The faculty felt that this group has been the most receptive, interested, and responsive in several months. The exam results reflected this opinion - there were no failures, and the highest percentage of "Excellent" ratings among the last eight courses.

2. [] Chief, Supplemental Programs Division, will lecture for the Office of Communications in the February course. This will be the first Commo presentation in the I.O. course.

B. Exhibits

1. The Support Exhibit on 15 January featured a new presentation by the Central Processing Branch, Office of Personnel.

2. The Office of Operations new exhibit was presented for the first time on 16 January. Improvements were also made in the ORR exhibit.

3. A completely new OSI exhibit is being readied for presentation in the February course.

4. We have notified appropriate DD/I offices of the February exhibit open to IAC visitors and have asked that names be submitted by 31 January.

C. Special Activities

1. On 21 January [] of the Office of Communications gave a 3-hour briefing to members of the I.O. staff. He discussed
